Sponsored Reading Bingo

Dear Parents,

As World Book Day is fast approaching we thought a Sponsored Reading Bingo Challenge over half term would be a wonderful way to keep the children busy and practice their reading skills. Overleaf we have set various reading challenges for the children to complete as many as possible.

Once each challenge is completed, make a note of each book in the square and get it signed and dated by an adult. With this challenge we hope to raise some funds for the school so please see below the sponsorship form – last year we raised a very impressive £894.50! As well as gaining a sense of achievement, every child who completes the challenge will receive a certificate.

Please return this completed form to classrooms on World Book Day (Thursday 5th March) along with any sponsorship monies raised.

Many thanks for your support as always.

Sponsored Reading Bingo

Read a book outside. In the garden, at the park or even on your door step! 	Read something with rhyme. A rhyming book, poem or even a nursery rhyme. 	Read something that makes you laugh. A silly story, a comic or a funny poem.
Read in a cosy spot. A blanket fort, a pile of cushions, under the table - anywhere that feels snug. 	Read to a toy, teddy or an action figure. You can be the teacher! 	Read a menu or a recipe.
Read a book about another country. It could be where your next holiday might be! 	Listen to an audio book for 10 minutes. It could be while you're in the car or at bedtime - you could follow along in the book. 	Read in your pyjamas during the day!
